Credit Application and Operating Agreement

We make application for a credit account with Canwest Propane Partnership. I affirm that I am duly authorized to complete the application and commit to the Credit Operating Agreement on behalf of the business. I authorize Canwest Propane Partnership to make investigations of our credit standing for which this application is made, as deemed to be necessary by Canwest. Upon approval of this application for a credit account, the signature(s) on this application are deemed to constitute acceptance of the Credit Operating Agreement below.

Credit Operating Agreement

It is agreed between the parties to this agreement as of the date first herein written that Canwest Propane Partnership will sell and deliver up Propane Partnership products, as agreed to by the applicant and/or the business herein mentioned. The applicant agrees to pay, in accordance with Canwest credit terms, all charges including but not limited to, service or late payment charges, delivery and pickup charges, permit and inspection fees and charges. In the event the applicant's account is in arrears, any future purchases will be declined until the account is cleared. Balance due is payable upon receipt. For accounts past due over 30 days interest charged will be 24% per annum

Delivery Schedule Options (choose one): Auto Fill Will Call

Will Call – the customer contacts our local Canwest Branch to order propane. We recommend that the customer contacts us when there is 25% of propane left in the tank.

Auto Fill – we will put you on a delivery schedule, so that when Canwest is in your area, we will fill your tank automatically. The customer is required to monitor the gauge on their tank, and contact us if it reaches 25%. To maintain this status, your account must stay current.
